Business After Hours February 2022 with Hunt & Hunt Lawyers

Macquarie Park Ryde Business Chamber held its first Business After Hours Networking Event for 2022. Our Platinum member, Hunt and Hunt Lawyers who were the hosts for the evening, presented a panel of legal experts with opportunity for members to ask questions, particularly in relation to employment law, property, wills and estates and family law matters. The panel consisted of Sarah Cappello, Joe Dominello and Vicki Colmer-Ridge. We had over 65 attendees in spite of rain and Covid restrictions.

Much interest was also focussed on relevant business matters and offered valuable advice to our small business owners will also hand out free resources and information that you can utilise within your business.

Managing Partner Brett Hearnden spoke about the history of Hunt & Hunt who originated in Eastwood. The firm originated from Sydney but has since grown to a national status and have enjoyed being part of the Ryde community for over 90 years. Hunt & Hunt remains community focused and are honoured to continue to assist the businesses and residents of the Ryde district area. With an office strategically located in Macquarie Business Park, the firm offers services such as commercial, property and conveyancing, wills and estates, family law, employment law, environmental and planning and disputes.

New Ryde Mayor Jordan Lane, Council Rep Jan Bouhali and Ryde local member Victor Dominello MP added gravitas to the event.

The Mayor reiterated the Council's support to local business, while also promoting the incredible professional diversity of the new Council. about the need to inject a new culture and tone to Council - one that works constructively with Government and local stakeholders to benefit our local community. The event was a huge success and was well-attended with positive feedback from our members. Great networking evening with delicious food provided by MGSM centre. A big thanks to Hunt & Hunt for the lucky door prize, a food hamper won by our member Ghazal Gholam Hossein from Mayfield Property Buyers.

We look forward to our ongoing relationship with Hunt & Hunt Lawyers, and to our next event.

"Meaningful inclusion for people with disability" - an event not to be missed!

MPRBC Platinum Member, Achieve Australia, will be hosting the upcoming Business After Hours event on Monday 7 March!

Achieve Australia have enjoyed being part of the Ryde community for 70 years. Being an NDIS-registered provider, they provide services to people with disability across greater Sydney and in the Northern Rivers region of NSW. Achieve champions social inclusion, focusing on the individual needs and lives of the people they support.

In 2021, Achieve Australia established The Achieve Foundation, to fund and commission research and innovation designed to remove barriers to inclusion for people with disability. The Foundation wants people with disability to experience belonging and is focused on two key drivers of inclusion: housing and supports for people with complex disability and shifting community attitudes to people with disability.

Join Achieve Australia at the next Business After Hours event to hear from their senior leaders and be introduced to The Achieve Foundation. The presentation will include a panel that will discuss corporate social responsibility and the benefit of small to medium-sized enterprises to philanthropy.
